

ARIZONA GRAND RESORT™

Fun. Friendly. Naturally Grand.™

Richard Behr
Managing Director

Richard Behr is Managing Director of the Arizona Grand Resort and joined the resort in July of 2007. Behr has operating and marketing responsibility for the full service, AAA Four Diamond rated resort, spread over 164 acres and is an instrumental figure in the complete renovation and re-branding project of the property. Behr came to Arizona Grand Resort from the Mira Monte Resort and Spa in Indian Wells, California, where he held the position of General Manager and oversaw a completion of that property's extensive renovation project.

Behr began his career in the hospitality industry nearly 20 years ago and has worked with both Grossman Company Properties and Destination Hotels and Resorts previously and brings with him a history of exceptional performance.

Behr attended Arizona State University and is a Valley native who currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Arizona Hotel & Lodging Association and also serves on the Tourism and Hospitality Advisory Board for the City of Phoenix.
